

HUMAN RIGHTS FOR ALL ESSAY COMPETITION

“What are Human Rights?”

The City of Murray Human Rights Commission is proud to presents the first ever Human Right Awareness Week essay contest open to high school students grades 9-12. The theme for this year is “Human Rights for all”, so we invite essay participants to answer the question “What are Human Rights?” Does this include bully prevention, having mutual respect for others, or freedom of speech? Let us know what your idea human rights mean and how they relate to your school and your community. Share your thoughts for a chance to win a $50 cash prize! Essays should be typed (single spaced) and approximately one page in length. One entrant per participant allowed. Submit your essay with your name, school, and grade by email to HumanRightsCommission@murrayky.gov.

Deadline: May 1, 2016

Thank you to all our Human Rights Awareness partners.
